JEFFERSON CITY, MO.

By U. S. Grant Taves.

This world's stupendous war is at an end and (the whole world) has at last been made safe for democracy. The great questions revolving in the minds of all good thinking Afro-Americans are "What do we get out of it?" Are we still to be "Jim Crowed," segregated, disfranchised, taxed without being represented, lynched, and burned at the stake as usual? Mrs. C. Coleman, who has been very sick, is improving. Misses Birdie Dunn and Ruby Evans entertained a number of their schoolmates at the home of Mrs. L. Enloe, New Year's night. The colored citizens of Jefferson City, Mo., met at the A. M. E. Zion church Sunday for the purpose of organizing a citizens' improvement league. Rev. Scruggs of the Baptist church was chosen temporary chairman and Prof. Abington was elected temporary secretary. A constitutional committee was also elected consisting of fifteen members. The committee will meet at the Rev. J. W. Darnell's church, Sunday next, at 3 p. m. Rev. E. L. Scruggs has published a very neat calendar for his church. It is to be published weekly. Mrs. R. McCullay visited friends on the "Callaway" side last week. Mrs. V. Reed, wife of one of our most scientific chauffeurs, spent a very pleasant Christmas with her sister, Mrs. O. J. Thornhill, at Bluffton, Mo. Mrs. Reed is an ardent reader of the "Sun." The A. M. E. Zion church, of which Dr. E. J. Dodson is pastor, is doing nicely. Miss H. Johnson and Prof. S. I. Benson, the former a music instructor and the latter a tailoring instructor at Lincoln Institute, have accepted positions elsewhere. Lincoln Institute sustains a great loss in these teachers. Prof. Benson goes to Tuskegee, Mo. Johnson goes to Philadelphia. Both the city and school miss these splendid people. The ladies' band will furnish music for the Emancipation celebration. The citizens should feel proud of them.

Mrs. Margaret Sharon entertained Wednesday night. Mr. and Mrs. Hurt and daughter of Glasgow spent the week end with Mrs. Mollie Wilson. Miss Ardenna Walls returned to her school at Camp Creek this week.

The city is alive again with R. S. & A. G. students as college opened last week. The fifty-sixth celebration of Emancipation Celebration was celebrated at Peake's hall, the evening of January 1st. Mrs. Campbell of St. Louis, Mo., who was sent to our city to take charge of community work with the assistance of Mr. Clinger who has charge of the Community House (white), secured the hall and made the opening address. Refreshments were served. The Community spent a pleasant evening with the soldiers.

RATON, NEW MEX.

Our church was crowded to its capacity and the pastor preached a powerful sermon. In the afternoon he spoke at the Baptist church for Dr. Millon. His sermon was delivered with much enthusiasm and the collection for the afternoon was $40.35. At 8 o'clock the pastor spoke at his own church using for his subject "God is Our Refuge." A large congregation was present. We are pleased to have among us Mrs. S. Crews, two sons and daughter, the latter of whom is one of the leading members of the A. M. E. church. We also welcome Mr. J. Price from Segal, Utah, and Mr. Sammie Hearon of Colorado, who was recently married to Miss M. Martin. The most enjoyable affair given this season was the reception tendered Mrs. S. Crews, her two sons and daughter, by Mrs. Mary Steele, the former's mother who presented Mrs. Crews with a modern five-room bungalow. Those present were: The guests of honor, Rev. and Mrs. A. B. Harris, Mrs. C. A. Woodward, Mrs. P. J. Williams, Miss Ruth Turner, Miss M. Kirge, Miss Bessie McCoy, Miss Floeie Freeman, Miss Effie Freeman, Miss Helen Harris, Mr. J. We are indeed proud of him for he is Butte stock. John Sanders committed suicide at the Ansonia theatre sometime between Friday night and Sunday noon. Mr. Henry Smith died at the Emergency hospital. A sudden drop in the temperature made everyone step lively for a few days. Montana was another state to go dry and the New Year promises a bright future. Mr. Gurley Fenter returned from a visit to his mother. Mr. George Armstrong left New Year's eve for his home in Texas to assist his father on the farm. Mrs. Matthew Grady is still in a precarious condition. The Social Club held its annual ball at Thistle hall, December 27. After 12 o'clock a delicious luncheon was served at the residence of Mrs. H. O. Cole. Privates Haskins and Welch of Camp Lewis were present. The officers of the club are: E. W. Rivers, president; H. O. Cole, manager; I. Hayes, Jr., treasurer; Mrs. Cole, secretary; Mrs. Sarah Johnson, assistant secretary. Rev. G. S. Allen preached a very able and instructive sermon December 29, subject, "The Man Who Forgot." Rev. E. HELENA, MONT.

By J. E. W. Clarke.
"How art thou fallen from heaven, O Lucifer, son of the morning." Funeral services of John Barleycorn were held in Helena and throughout Montana at midnight on the 30th of December, 1918. John Barleycorn was one of Montana's best known citizens, coming to the state possibly as early as the first white settler. He was a man of many and peculiar traits, and while he boasted of many staunch friends his enemies were more numerous and relentless; the latter finally succeeding in bringing about his demise on the above named date. Barleycorn's overwhelming popularity and boundless influence was his own undoing. While much of his work was good, at too implicit trust and faith in him invariably spelled ruin to his best friend. Social, political and business temples opened wide their portals to him; yes, even the church, at one time, mildly quaffed of his seductive influence. Time change all things. He is gone! He is no more! He is dead! His sepulchus John Barleycorn, Laus Deo!

Mrs. Ada Hart, with Mesdames A. G. Dorsey, K. C. Smith, C. K. McEvoy, Cora Johnson and Ella Anderson, surprised Mrs. Jefferson Harrison by appearing Christmas morning with a typical southern breakfast, all prepared, and after laying covers for seven, a most enjoyable morning was spent. A bunch of fresh violets, the gift of Mrs. Johnson, adorned the courage of each lady. Dainty place cards were furnished by Mrs. Smith, and Mrs. Dorsey was the donor of table decorations.

Robert Brown of our city and Albert Johnson of Missoula, of Company M, 812th Pioneer Infantry, arrived several days ago from Camp Dodge, Iowa. They were three days out on the ocean when the armistice was signed and they were ordered to return to the United States.

Miss Hilda Christian was called to her home in Townsend because of the illness of her mother, father, two brothers and a sister, who had contracted the "flu." At this writing all are recovering.

Miss Corean Soulds, who has been visiting in the East for several months, has returned home.

Mrs. Annie Kelly, mother of Mrs. W. R. Dorsey, has been confined to her bed for several weeks.

Mrs. Ella Anderson and Mrs. Nannie Reed were at home to more than a score of their friends Saturday evening, the 28th, at the residence of the former on Broadway. Refreshments in keeping with Christmas week, and the usual happy faculty which they possess to please, made the evening one of joy.

Among the many social events of Christmas week, none were more characteristic of the Yuletide spirit than the finely appointed dinner given by Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Welsh at their residence on Broadway. The comfortable home was tastefully decorated with evergreen and beautiful, sweet scented flowers of Christmas hue. Included in the guest list were: Rev. and Mrs. George F. Martin, Mr. and Mrs. Julian Anderson and family, Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Ingram, Mr. and Mrs. Isadore Maney and Mr. and Mrs. J. E. W. Clarke.

Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Calender of Gt. Falls, who have been spending the holidays with Mrs. Calender's parents, have returned to the Falls. The joy of Christmas holidays reached its climax in an elaborate dinner given by Mr. and Mrs. A. G. Dorsey, New Year's Eve. The center of the table was graced with a bowl of ferns and the color scheme of red gave an added beauty to the general surroundings which were all that heart could wish for. Those partaking of the hospitality were: Mr. and Mrs. Julian Anderson, Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Reid, Mr. and Mrs. Miles York, Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Hart, Mrs. Jefferson Harrison and Mr. Julian Anderson, Jr.

Mr. Harry Travis Kilgour and Miss Carolyn Eveta Dorsey were married at Pocatello, Idaho, by Rev. C. D. Parker at 5:30 o'clock p. m., December 31st. Mr. Kilgour is well known throughout the Northwest, having for many years traveled for Clisset & Devers, of Portland, Ore., importers of teas, coffee and spices. He is now with the C. and A. Amusement Company of Pocatello, where he has purchased a beautiful bungalow for his bride. Mrs. Kilgour is the oldest daughter of Mrs. W. R. Dorsey, owner of the Dorsey Mercantile Company, and was one of the most popular young ladies of Helena's social set. She is an accomplished musician, having finished her musical education at Fisk. Her many friends wish for her numerous happy years filled with the best obtainable things along life's journey.

Mrs. Laura Sidney of Townsend, who has been visiting Mrs. J. W. Crump, left the city for her home last Thursday.

Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Crump entertained at dinner New Year's Day Mr. and Mrs. M. A. Lowrey and family and Mrs. Laura Sidney.

There is not the slightest reason for any Negro going to white theatres and being "Jim Crowed" when the best attractions are shown in this theatre where you have every convenience.
